Books, the open doors to greater opportunity

The pages bound between the cover of the Echo for 1959 represent the finished copy of the record of our four years at Enfield High School. This book is a scrap book, a photograph album, and a diary of our high school career.

The current emphasis on education has suggested our theme for this edition. The trend toward intensive education is exemplified in our high school, and our classbook inscribes the serious approach our classmates have taken toward educational achievement. The contents of this chronicle have been compiled as a memory book. In it we have tried to capture the mood and the times. Our high school life is but a section of the story. However, without the friendships, understanding and knowledge secured, we could not call the book complete.

The doors have now been flung open before us. We are standing at the threshold of our future. Looking back over our shoulders, we can see the people to whom we are greatly indebted for the knowledge we have gained. Our administrators, teachers, parents and friends have been important chapters in our "Book of Life." Because of their guidance, we have accomplished our purpose, and we may confidently look toward the future and greater opportunities.

Dedication

MR. KARL D. LEE
Superintendent of Schools

Mr. Karl D. Lee has completed forty-five years of educational service, the last thirty-two of which he has devoted to Enfield. Beginning as principal of Enfield High and terminating as Superintendent of the Enfield Educational System, Mr. Lee has left a trail of appreciative students, colleagues, and townspeople whose regret at his retirement is matched only by their well wishes for his future. Under his friendly and skillful guidance, students have been shown the doors of opportunities that have led them to eminently successful and happy lives. In appreciation of his devotion we, the young people of Enfield, dedicate our Class Book.

To provide the necessary materials, books, buildings, and personnel is the task of this committee. From their broad professional and business background, they compile the educational policies that help equip us for the challenge of life. Each year, as the task of providing adequate instructions becomes more complex, these men revise, augment, and add new chapters to the Book of Education. Their research is never ending; the volume of their work, imposing; and the conclusion of their efforts, a deep satisfaction for a job well done.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Now that our high school career has come to a climax, after having survived the many crises of the past four years, we are now faced with the complexities of the future. Fortunately for most of us we can look forward to the challenges with confidence based upon our preparations for life. Many of us have mastered skills and accumulated knowledge with which we hope to take our places in society.

As we look in retrospect we can now see the many doors to opportunity through which we have been led. We appreciate the plotting and the planning of our education by our parents and teachers, and to them we hope to vindicate their faith in us by our taking full advantage of the opportunities they have provided for us.

Activities

*"My mind lets go a thousand things,
Like dates of wars and deaths of kings,
And yet recalls the very hour . . ."*

—Thomas Baily Aldrich

Clubs—group activities—dances—classes—drama—dominant traits of individuals, all rush in, in a kaleidoscope of recollections for the members of the Class of '59. Tokens and souvenirs, programs and letters vivify the memories of working, playing, and living together for four years.

CLASS HISTORY

The book of the Class of 1959 is complete, and all the members of the class have contributed to the writing of it. Although writing books does not come naturally to most of us, we believe we have created a best-seller. The volume has been four years in the writing, and the ink is not yet dry.

Chapter I FRESHMAN YEAR 1955

Confusion reigned as we entered Enfield High School. The novel experience and the strange faces gave us an uneasy feeling. We wondered if we'd ever feel at home.

Early in the fall we were welcomed by the Seniors at the annual Senior-Freshman reception where we enjoyed entertainment, refreshments and dancing.

After becoming acquainted with the members of our class, we campaigned for and elected our class officers: Michael Taylor, President; Carol Terry, Secretary; and Patricia Carroll, Treasurer. Also elected at this time were Lois Karcz and Henry Bennett, our student council representatives.

In the fall the play "Life with Mother" was presented. Paul Morrison carried off honors as the youngest son in the Day family.

Our athletes began to develop their skill in their Freshman year as they participated in basketball and baseball. Henry Bennett, John Borski, Gerald Collins, Louis Casinghino, James Alaimo, and Michael Carenzo formed a strong nucleus of the Freshman basketball team while Louis Casinghino, Hank Bennett, and Jim Alaimo represented the Freshman on the baseball team.

At the close of our Freshman year, honors were brought to our class by Lillian Goulet, who received the Latin prize, and Penelope Moulton, who was awarded the Freshman Essay Prize.

Chapter II SOPHOMORE YEAR 1956

Again we entered Enfield High School. Our first year's experience gave us the confidence we needed as we launched into the activities of the next year.

The development of the plot of our story was again entrusted to the hands of Michael Taylor as our President. He was assisted by such able officers as Beverly Frank, Vice-President; Janice Arietti, Secretary; and Barbara Olschafskie, Treasurer. Student Council representatives for the year were Rosanne Morgano, Henry Bennett, James Alaimo, and Alice Godfrey.

On the football field, Henry Bennett, Michael Taylor, James Alaimo, and Richard Dudek began to show promise as future grid-iron stars.

The Hi-Y Minstrel "Starlight Revue" was one of our first stepping stones as a talented class. Among the many gifted sophomores taking part were Karen Godard, Claudia Whitney, and Beverly Frank in addition to a fine chorus.

The Junior Varsity basketball squad gained a number of valuable players in the persons of Jim Alaimo, Hank Bennett, Louis Casinghino, John Borski, Jean Demers, Michael Carenzo, and Gary Parkman. The girls' Varsity Basketball team added Claudia Whitney, Marjorie Kraucunas, Carol Kubik, Barty Bellomo, Elaine Kislarewicz, Cecile Bergeron, and Alice Godfrey to its ranks.

On May 10, we held our first social activity, an informal dance. Michael Taylor was general chairman of the affair which we called "Spring Swing". The dance provided us with the background experience for future social ventures.

On the baseball diamond Henry Bennett, Jean Demers, Robert Mercier, Rodney Bungard, James Alaimo, and Ronald Tenerow efficiently proved their prowess.

For their continued excellence in Latin and English, Lillian Goulet and Penelope Moulton received a second award respectively for high standing.

Chapter III JUNIOR YEAR 1957

This year proved to be the transition period which changed us from insecure underclassmen to the academically, athletically, and socially prominent Junior Class.

The first item in our Junior Year was the accustomed task of electing the class officers. For the third consecutive term we elected Michael Taylor as our President. Michael Carenzo was elected Vice-President, Carol Terry was elected Secretary, and Barbara Olschafskie was again our Treasurer.

The play, "Tattletale", was presented in November with members of the Junior class headlining the cast. The leading role was played by Beverly Frank, and the supporting actors and actresses were Barty Bellomo, Gary Parkman, Loraine Fowler, Bonnie Comrie, Carol Holt, Barbara Therrien, Henry Bennett, Evelyn Kozlowski, David Harrington, Richard Houlroyd, and Ray Blouin.

The Varsity Football squad included those well-trained Juniors, Hank Bennett, Jim Alaimo, Richard Dudek, Peter Skower, and Jim Stafford who formed a strong backbone for their senior teammates. At the close of the season at the annual Football Banquet, James Alaimo and Henry Bennett were chosen co-captains for the following year.

Representatives to Student Council were Rosanne Morgano, Michael Carenzo, Henry Bennett, Carol Bushey, Janice Arietti, and Alice Godfrey.

The height, agility, and competitive spirit of our Junior athletes, Gerald Collins, John Borski, Bob Pelligrino, Jim Alaimo, and Hank Bennett, give them places in the Varsity Basketball team. Gary Parkman, Richard Mageau, Harold King, Peter Jordt, and Raymond Miaracki served equally well as the hub of the Junior Varsity squad.

The girls' Varsity Basketball team found promising athletes in the persons of Lois Karcz, Barbara Therrien, Alice Copeland, Elaine Kislarewicz, Marjorie Kraucunas and Alice Godfrey.

In April, the members of the class participated in preparing for our first class prom, "Carousel". The committee was chosen, and they all worked hard to bring about a very beautiful and profitable evening. Michael Carenzo and Rosanne Morgano were the affable host and hostess.

On the baseball team were Robert Mercier, Henry Bennett, Rodney Bungard, Jean Demers, Raymond Miarcecki, and James Alaimo providing their worth as ball-players.

Our class was well represented away from school at various conferences held throughout the East. Frances Gennusa, Evelyn Kozlowski, and Barty Bellomo traveled to Bard College in New York to attend the Y-Teens Conference. Delegates to Laurel Girls' State and Nutmeg Boys' State were Loraine Fowler, Peter Carenza, and Ronald Tenerow. At the Bushnell Auditorium in Hartford, the Junior class was represented by Bonnie Comrie, Robert Cormier, and Claudia Whitney where they participated in the All-State Band, Orchestra, and Chorus. Lois Karcz, Carol Terry, Michael Taylor, and Alice Godfrey participated in the Junior Red Cross Leadership Training Program in August at Camp Pequot and the University of Bridgeport.

The awards given at the graduation exercises during our Junior year were in the fields of Stenography, Book-keeping, and History. These honors were bestowed upon Ann Marie Bajek, Sandra Silverman, and Alice Godfrey, respectively.

The Farewell Prom, given for the departing seniors by the underclassmen, was under the general chairmanship of Evelyn Kozlowski. The theme of the prom was "An Affair to Remember". The charming hostess, Joyce Monnette and the gracious host, Roger Frangiamore, presided over the joyous affair.

Chapter IV

SENIOR YEAR 1958

In September, 1958, we reached the turning point in the plot of our story as we again entered the halls of Enfield — this time as Seniors. This was the year which would tie together our threads of the past three years and lead up to the climax of our high school career.

To raise money to defray our numerous class bills, the Senior class worked on two fund raising projects. In October, a cupcake sale was held with members of the class contributing the cupcakes. A food stand sponsored by the Senior Class was erected at the Four-Town Fair. Mr. Nigro supplied the stand with home-made Italian sausages and students also contributed food to be sold. The students, anxious to see Michael Carenzo and Richard Wesch cooking on an inadequate gas burner, supported this project enthusiastically.

When we elected officers to direct our activities for the year, the election returns told us Henry Bennett was our President, Beverly Frank our Vice-President, Carol Terry our Secretary, and James Alaimo our Treasurer. Representatives to the Student Council, being eight in number, were Peter Carenza, Joan Smola, Henry Bennett, Patricia Carroll, Janice Arietti, Joseph Mistretta, Rosanne Morgano, and Alice Godfrey. The Student Council election found Hank, President; Joe, Vice-President, Rosanne, Secretary; and Janice, Treasurer.

The highlight of our social functions for the year was our Senior prom, "Mistletoe Ball", a gala affair for which James Alaimo was the general chairman. The auditorium was transformed into a delightful winter scene through the efforts of the committee, and Gary Parkman and Loraine Fowler, the amiable host and hostess, greeted the guests at the prom.

The "Echoes", a division of the Glee Club, had representation from our class. The clear and mellow voices of Karen Godard, Elaine Kislarewicz, Carol Kresge, Patricia Carroll, Judith Bent, Carol Kubik, Shirley Myers, Barty Bellomo, Carol Bushey, Lois Karcz, and Alice Godfrey were enjoyed as they performed at assemblies, and the Christmas and Spring Concerts.

The sports activities for the year found the polished and seasoned athletes again advancing to the football field and the basketball court. The football team had a good season with such seniors as Richard Dudek, Michael Taylor, Jim Spanswick, Henry Bennett, Peter Skower and Jim Alaimo proving their ability in this sport. Roger Frangiamore was awarded the Most Valuable Player Trophy for his outstanding accomplishments in football.

With John Borski as captain of the Varsity Basketball team the following members of our class contributed to the success of the Enfield Raiders: Richard Maggio, Gary Parkman, Robert Pellegrino, Roger Frangiamore, Henry Bennett, and Gerald Collins.

Leading in the demonstrations of school spirit were the cheerleaders. The Senior members of the cheerleading squad, most of whom had participated in this activity for four years, were Rosanne Morgano, captain during the past year, Janice Arietti, Joyce DeCaro, Patricia Carroll, Joyce Monette, Barbara Colton, Evelyn Kozlowski, and Beverly Frank.

The award of "Homemaker of the Year" was bestowed upon Carol Welch; and the Daughters of the American Revolution named Alice Godfrey as the recipient of the Good Citizenship Award.

The annual play again brought out the thespian qualities of members of our class as they presented the successful play, "Arsenic and Old Lace". Beverly Frank, Kendall Boyer, Peter Skower, Rodney Bungard, Carol Holt, and Michael Taylor were the Senior members of the cast. The management of the play was undertaken by Alice Godfrey, Gerald Collins, Joan Smola, and Susan Case.

Perhaps the most exciting venture we participated in as a class was the annual class trip to Washington, D.C. which took place the last week in April. We traveled by chartered buses stopping to visit Gettysburg. We spent four days in Washington visiting the many government buildings and historic places.

This is the history of our class, and now we have reached the climax — Class Night, Graduation and the Farewell Prom, and with this we close the book of the Class of 1959.

DELEGATES TO JUNIOR RED CROSS TRAINING CENTER

TICKER

The newspaper staff with the direction of Miss Javorski is responsible for our monthly publication, the "Ticker." The newspaper presents the news of the month, editorials, original poetry, the short stories by the students, and the "personalities of the month." All the art work, reporting and compiling of the paper is done by the staff members.

TICKER STAFF

Bonnie Comrie, Patricia Blaney, and Nancy Bridge.

ECHOES

The "Echoes", a group of twenty-two upper classmen, has played an important part in the presentation of our concerts this year. Their impressive selections at the Christmas Concert, and those given at the Enfield Teachers' Association Scholarship meeting exemplify the statement — "O magic of a song! here loveliness may sleep unhindered"

ALL-STATE CHORUS, BAND AND ORCHESTRA

Members of the All-State Band and Chorus for the 1958 concert held at the Bushnell Auditorium included Bonnie Comrie, Robert Cormier, Robert Zarcaro, and Dennis Gebo. This annual event, sponsored by the Connecticut Music Educators' Association, brought together for recognition the finest musicians and singers from high schools throughout the state.

Robert Cormier, Robert Zarcaro, Dennis Gebo, and Bonnie Comrie.

ORCHESTRA

The orchestra has been active in presenting music at the Christmas Concert and at assemblies throughout the year. Various members of the orchestra have acted as accompanists for the Glee Club. We won't forget Rodney Bungard's rendition of "Jingle Bell Rock" at the Christmas assembly.

Prom Committees

The various prom committees are in charge of all the arrangements for the three main social events of the school year. Under the leadership of a general chairman subcommittees are formed, each performing a specific job. The host and hostess candidates are nominated by the committee and voted by the entire class. When the night of the prom arrives, those attending behold the beautifully decorated gym floor and the stage—the climax of the committee's efforts.

Junior Prom

Into our diary filled with pleasant recollections shall ever be engraved the memory of our junior prom, "Carousel." The prom was held on April 18, 1958 in the auditorium. The Moonlighters provided the music. On the stage stood a miniature carousel on which were four pastel horses with gilt harnesses and plumage of contrasting colors. The dancers promenaded under a canopy of red and white streamers which were gathered together at the center with a huge assortment of multi-colored balloons. Lollipop favors resembling clown faces, tiny clowns reclining on pink cotton clouds in the center of each table, and programs of red clown faces with sparkling features carried out the circus theme. Hostess Rosanne and Host Michael greeted the prom-goers and guests. Strains of "Stardust" and "Tenderly" floated out over the hall as dancers circled the floor.

"Mistletoe Ball"—December 13—read the ticket. Finally the night had arrived. In her hand she carried the red foil program, the memory book of this enjoyable evening, along with her favor, a tiny cotton snowman.

Bill Murray and His Men of Note served as the music-makers for the festivities. Gary and Loraine were host and hostess for the gala occasion.

The stage was adorned with a sleigh and eight tiny reindeers in the midst of falling snowflakes. Dancing was done under a ceiling of snowy-white streamers and golden stars, a scene to be remembered by all.

Farewell Prom

The days of fun and frolic at Enfield for our senior friends drew to a close on that evening of June 20, 1958, at their farewell prom, "An Affair to Remember".

While admiring her favor, a small diploma with a golden graduation hat attached, and her four-leaf clover and horseshoe-shaped program, she recalled that the auditorium looked like a page from a magazine. The stage was serene and peaceful, with its swing, rock garden, and wishing well, Joyce and Roger served as host and hostess for this last, but never forgotten social affair.

Her program and favor will forever serve as an everlasting memory of this affair to remember bringing to a close the last chapter of her high school life.

SOCIAL PROBLEMS

The "Problems of Democracy" course acquaints the students with the social, economical, and political complexities confronting our government. The members of the classes participate in discussions and bring out their various points of view on the many topics. Problems as diversified as those of population, marriage, and city management are recognized, understood, and evaluated. Here, Harold King holds the attention of his classmates as he voices his thoughts concerning the problems of labor and management.

Harold King delivers his social problems topic on labor and management.

STENOGRAPHY CLASS

Carol Fortini, Claire Tkacz, and Frances Noto master various Stenography outlines as they prepare for mid-terms examinations.

The informality of the social problems class leaves its members relaxed and ready to answer questions. Outside materials, such as editorials, "U.S. New and World Report", and others are used to keep the class abreast of the time. Sandra Gebbie, Beverly Frank, and Carol Holt are amused by a remark concerning problems dealing with personality, while Barbara Olschafskie jots down a note.

CHEMISTRY CLASS

In the Chemistry Class, pupils are introduced to the study of the nature of matter, and the principles that govern the chemical changes it may undergo. Experiments illuminate the principles that govern these changes. Casinghino and Grosso are double checking the formula in their text book.

School Play

On December 5, 1958, our annual school play, "Arsenic and Old Lace," was presented. The play proved to be a great success through the careful guidance of Franklin Gross and proficient acting of the students.

Peter Skower, Beverly Frank, and Kendall Boyer, three of the lead players added considerably to the enjoyment of the play. They proved worthy of the many compliments they received both during and after their performance.

However, the play could not have been complete without the bit parts of Carol Holt, Gary Parkman, Mike Taylor, and Rodney Bungard, for they contributed in making the lead players, as well as themselves worthy of praise and admiration.

This year's team had a moderately successful season, showing good offensive balance in the form of the triple-threat quarterback Hank Bennett, scat-back Richard Dudek, and the sticky-fingered end, Roger Frangiamore.

In an explosive game against Commerce, Quarterback Bennett began the second quarter by snaring a long pass from Half-back Bill Delaney to give the Raiders six points. In the fourth quarter the Raiders climaxed their scoring as Bennett, this time on the tossing end, heaved a 30-yard pass to Frangiamore. Dudek piled up most of the yardage as he crashed through the Commerce defense.

It was in this game that Frangiamore provided the spark needed for victory, as well as distinguishing himself by outstanding drive and spirit, which later brought him the Most Valuable Player Award.

After a loss to Trade, Enfield bounced back, without the aid of its injured signal-caller, Bennett, to whip the strong Palmer Panthers.

Diminutive Richie Dudek stole the show as he streaked down the field in three spectacular runs, 55 yards, 80 yards, and 60 yards, respectively, scoring three touchdowns.

Then Enfield bench, although not the League's strongest, came through in fine style when called upon. Half-back Mike Taylor thrilled the spectators at the Simsbury game with a dazzling 50-yard run, which was the straw that broke Simsbury's back, and assured the Raiders of victory.

Guard Harold King and Tackle Ray Miarecki did a fine job of plugging up the holes in our forward wall during crucial moments.

Led by Captain John Borski, the Green Raiders captured third place in the Valley Wheel. His steady play kept the team in every game up until the final buzzer.

Sharp-shooting Guard, Bob Pellegrino, kept the fans off their seats with his drive in shots and clever ball-handling.

Roger Frangiamore was as accurate as a bombsight as he consistently pumped in his one-handers. The Raiders showed fine hustle; what they lacked in height, they made up in spirit and competitiveness.

Borski Set to Leap for Rebound of Frangiamore's Shot

Toward the close of the regular season, Enfield invited the Buxton, Maine, High School Basketball Team down for a game. The boys from Maine were well-drilled and extremely tall; however, they were no match for our spirited quintet.

Mike Carenzo and Burt Moody helped Enfield's "tall timber" as they pulled down the rebounds and tallied points to increase the potency of the Raiders' attack.

The girls' basketball season opened on January 8th at the Enfield gym as our sharpshooting females scored a convincing victory over the Palmer sextet. Co-Captain and Center Forward, Elaine Kislarewicz cleared the board, aided by speedy Cecile Bergeron, while Co-captain, Barty Bellomo and guards Alice Copeland, Barbara Therrien, and Lois Karcz handled the ball in the backcourt.

Varsity Cheerleaders

The drive behind our athletic squads was our lively team of cheerleaders headed by Captain Rosanne Morgano. The girls accompanied the Raiders to all their games, boosting their morale during tense moments. Their cheers and acrobatics stimulated the spirit of the spectators and students at games in our home gym. At the end of the basketball season, the cheerleaders acted as hostesses to visiting players from Buxton, Maine.

At an assembly, Mr. Tatoian awarded school sweaters to deserving seniors Rosanne Morgano, Evelyn Kozlowski, Barbara Colton, Joyce DeCaro, Janice Arietti, Patricia Carroll, Joyce Monette, and Beverly Frank.

Baseball

Seniors were the mainstay of the Enfield Squad when Captain Hank Bennett and his cohorts took the field against South Hadley, Ware, Ludlow, Easthampton, Monson, Palmer, and Agawam in the Valley Wheel League. The Raiders played two games with each club.

Ace left-hander, Jim Spanswick seemed to throw all strikes as he mowed down the opposition at the plate with his bullet-like fastball and deceiving curves.

Spanswick teamed up with battery mate, Bennett to drive in Enfield's runs.

Veterans Jean Demers, Bob Mercier, and Dick Mageau figured in Enfield's drive with their steady fielding and were responsible for sending many opposing pitchers to the showers.

TRACK

The new edition of the track team on the Enfield scene this season created a demand for many new types of athletes. The foremost of these was Richie Dudek, who was equally proficient at a variety of track events. Dudek was the only Enfield senior in recent years to score 15 points in a meet, which is the highest possible individual score according to high school interscholastic ruling.

Paul Pilch and Francis Russotto sped over the cinders at a torrid pace in their efforts to post Raider victories.

As for javelin throwing and shot-putting, the opposition found Jim Alaimo and Dave Harrington "tough to top."

The Most Valuable Player Award was presented to John Borski by Mr. William Scudieri, member of the Enfield Board of Education. The team members received gold basketballs.

Indications are a greater number of high school graduates are now enrolled in our colleges and universities than ever before in the history of our country. This is most encouraging, for it demonstrates a realization on the part of our youth, a desire to equip themselves better for the tasks that lie ahead.

ENFIELD AMVETS

An organization formed by auto enthusiasts dedicated to promote interest in the sport, emphasize safety on the public highway, and endeavor to make clearer the true meaning of the term "Hot Rod."

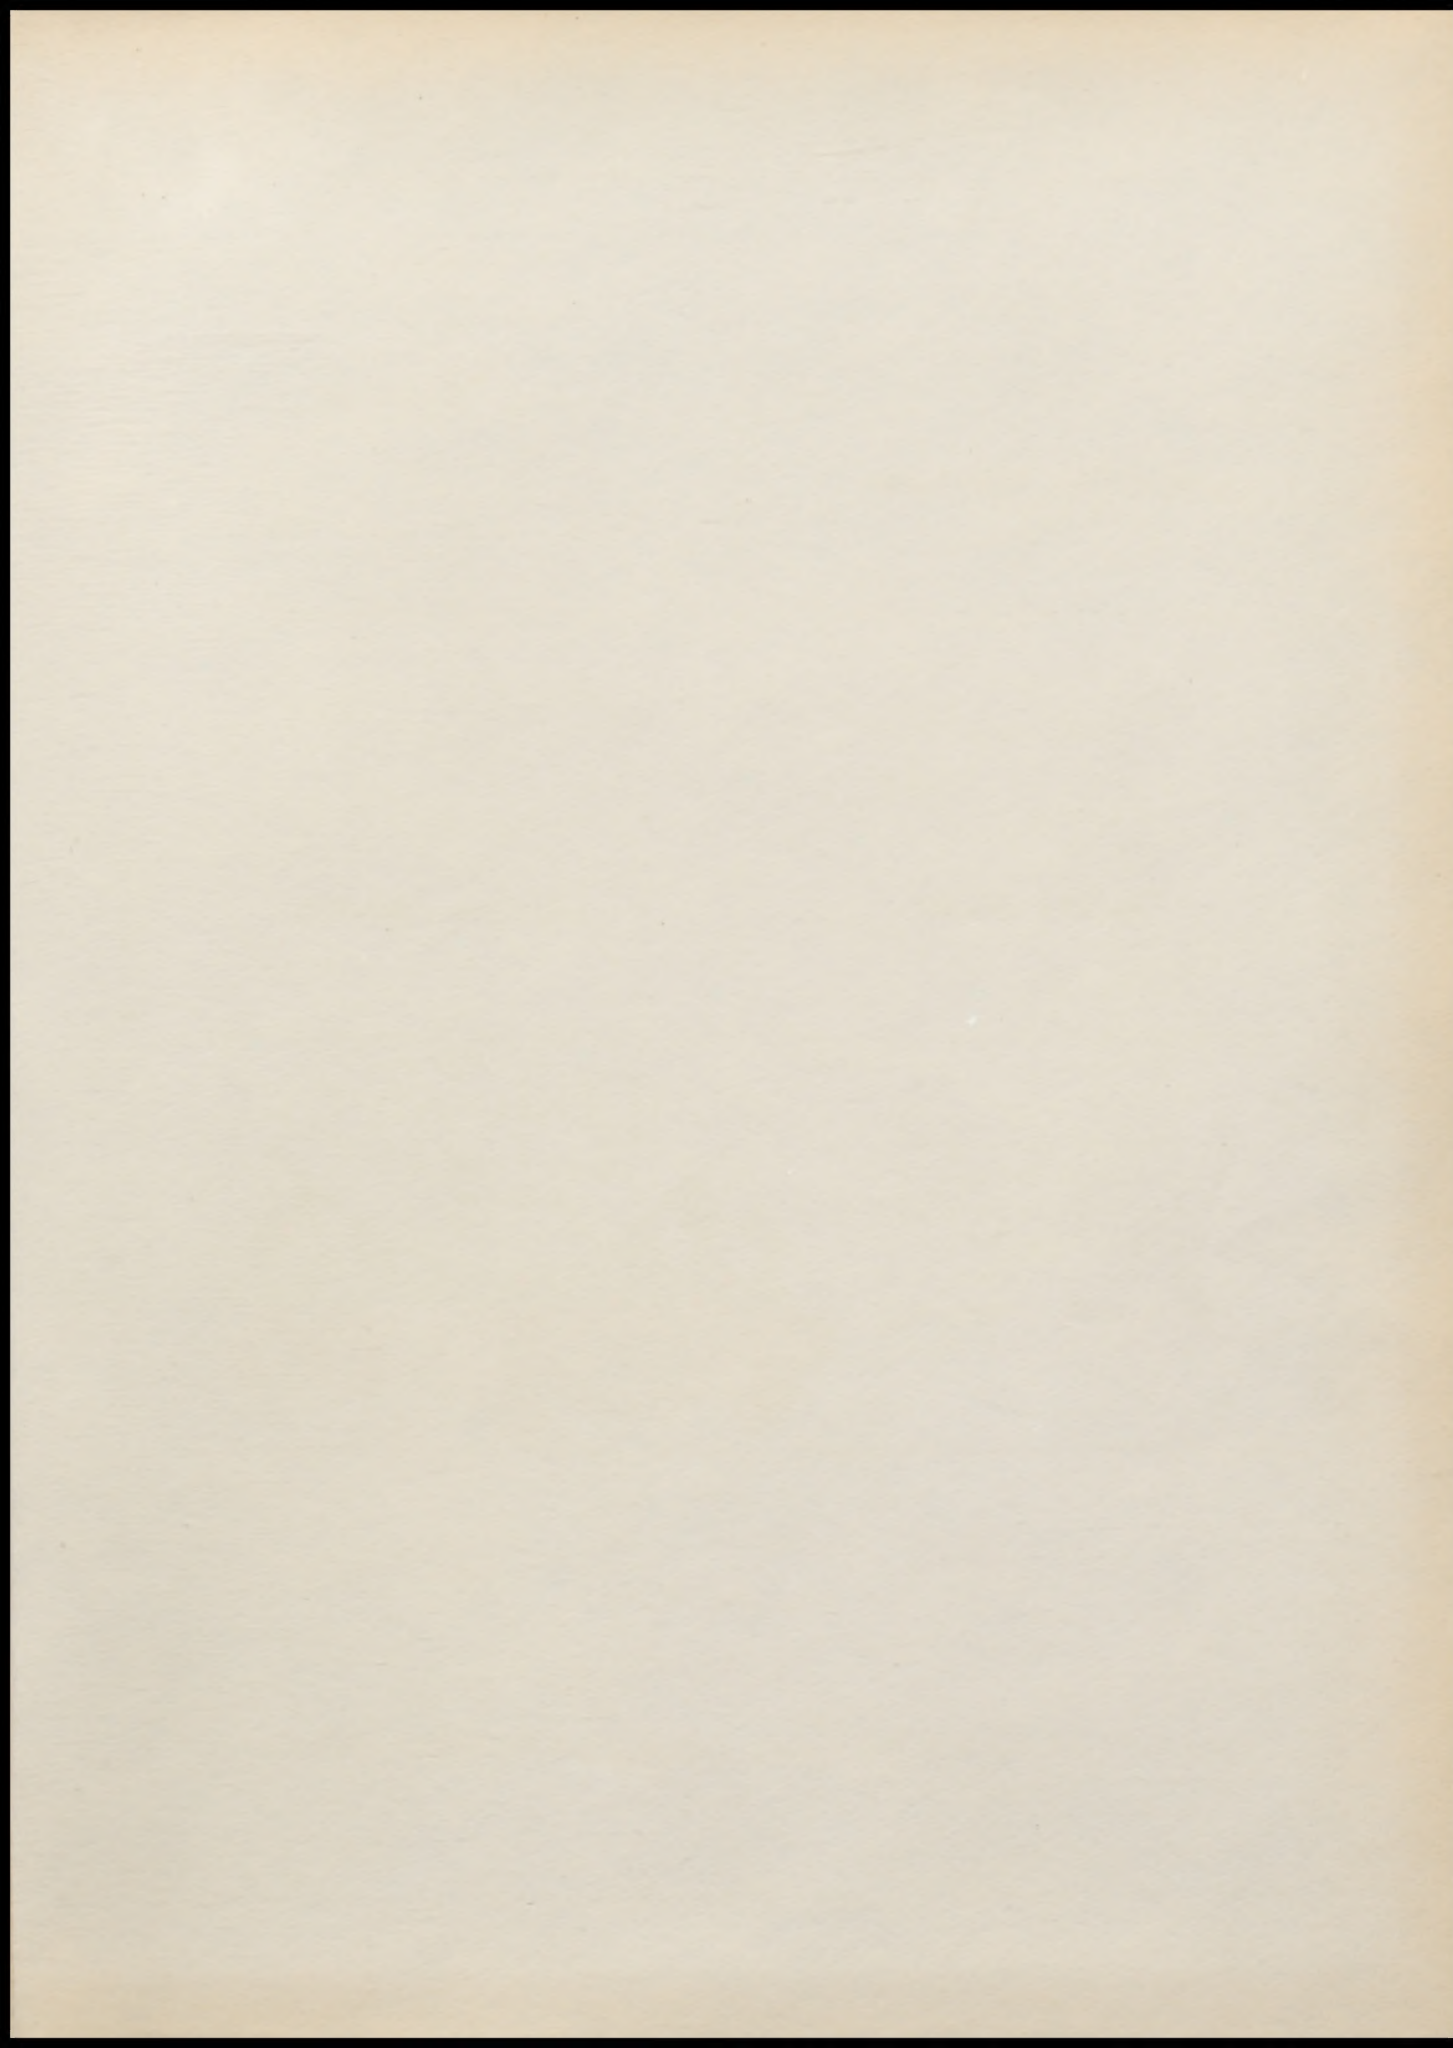

Congratulations to the

STUDENT COUNCIL

Unto you, O men, I call —
Hear for I will speak noble things
For my mouth shall utter truth
And all to be desired cometh of me.
